

Which terms actually track the exact gradient-alignment objective?
 Every cell is computed within target first, then summarized by the median

